May 28th The day set aside many years ago as Decoration Day. And later changed to Memorial day. For years this day has been set aside to reflect and remember those who have given their all in service to this country. By decorating graves of the fallen soldiers, taking a moment of silence and flying the flag at half mast we in a small way say Thank you for all you have done for us.

Two years before his death MacArthur gave a speech about Duty, Honor and Country which is on the West Point coat of arms. He stated that these three words dictate What you ought to be, what you can be & what you will be.

I believe that though this is on the West Point Coat of arms all military branches follow the same pattern of thinking. These men and women have given their lives so that you and I can have our freedom and raise our children in this wonderful country.

And though we do not want to diminish what these soldiers have done for us we at Portage Lakes Kiwanis would like to remember tonight the friends and family and fellow Kiwanians who served and though they did make it home may have lost a Friend or Brother or maybe an Uncle or Cousin. Below is a list of the few gentlemen at the meeting tonight, and I am sure there are many more that I have not named:

Mr. Tom Longworth	Navy	1941 – 1946
Mr. Bob Longworth	Navy	1943 – 1946
Mr. Gene Cole	Marines	1970 – 1976
Mr. Gordon Rice	Army	1950 – 1952
Mr. Phil Pinnow	Army/Korea	1955 – 1961
Mr. Tom Varley	Navy	1959 – 1965
Mr. Frank Smith	Army	1968 - 1969

Because our meetings are on Wednesday night's we are doing this a little late – But tonight we Thank you and your fellow service men from the different branches of the service who made it home safely or lost their lives defending us and this country.
