GUEST SPEAKER

Tonight's Guest Speaker was - Mr. Dan Reynolds from the Rotary Club. The Rotary Club was founded in 1924 by two members of the Akron Rotary Club. The inspiration for this club came from Mr. Simmons (who started the camp) 1st born child. This Child sadly did not make it long in life but, the thought was what if she had. What would have been available for her to try to live a normal life.

In 1926 it was moved to the Portage Lakes area of Rex Lake. The purpose is to sever Children and Adults with all sorts of disabilities through out Ohio. The camp slogan is “ The way things should be “ the meaning behind this is it is very hard for these children to fit in to everyday settings such as school, going to the store, swimming ect. At camp the kids come first. It is a place the kids are encouraged to be themselves.

Encouragement: The camp and it's counselors also provide support to the families of these children. The help by going to the school meetings, Dr. Appointments with the parents and try to be a voice for the families. Along with Social workers at the camp who are available to the entire family.

Vision - As this camp was started many years ago the cabins and restrooms were very old and drab. The Rotary Camp and long with many volunteers and donations from people has been able to rebuild and refurbish the cabins. Which now also have airconditioning. Also the re did the restrooms which are now large enough for children in wheel chairs and the counselor who needs to be in there to help them. It was amazing to see where the camp started and how far it has come over the years. Mr. Reynolds had some very interesting information to share with us/

Now the goal is to raise enough money to build a nesw Recreation Center for the kids and their families.

I encourage you to take time to check their website @ gotcamp.org and see all the ownderful things this camp probides for many children and adults.

Thank you very much Mr. Reynolds for joining us at the Pig Roast and speaking to the entire club and it's guests for the evening.

COMMITTEE ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHARLIE KEPNES: Announced that the Golf Team is doing well. Tuesday night's game was a little wet due to the rain. But everyone played well.
