VICKI KEPNES was happy that granddaughter got a job at Outback Steakhouse. She was given an application to fill out and after she turned it in, the manager was shocked, he had given her an application all in Spanish, and she had filled it out correctly! She did not think anything was wrong and told him she takes Spanish in school. When she went back the next day for the second interview, the manager had written "HIRE HER!!" Way to go Bricey!!

NORM ELIAS was just happy to be back with us!!! We were glad to see him too!!

JEFF GOODWIN was glad to be back after spending 4-5 days motorcycling in the Smoky Mountains in the blazing hot weather, but said if you get a chance go there!!

PRES. FRANK SMITH was happy to tell us about a young man in their warehouse at Ace Hardware who is a boxer and FRANK had the opportunity to see him in action and was so impressed that this mild nice young man really did a wonderful job and won the title last Saturday night.

BETTY SCHADL #1 dollar was for the fact that since she is no longer working, she has bought a kayak and has taken it all over the Eastern Shore, and the Outer Banks and had a classmate from Coventry who called and they have been kayaking all over the local lakes.#2 was for last Wednesday getting the chance to spend the day with grandson, Cash, going swimming and going to Sluggers and Putters where this 4 year old showed grandma how to golf.

SUE HARDING was glad to see NORM ELIAS again And had a JOE KLOPE story especially for RICK SPRING, who was not here!!! Too bad, it was a great lawyer joke!!
