PROGRAM: DAVID GATES ON "CIVIL WAR 150TH ANNIVERSARY"

Our guest speaker tonight was David Gates, who spoke on the Daily Life of a Northern Soldier. David was dressed as a Union soldier and had a wonderful display of items you might see carried by a soldier. They carried a rifle with a single shot that could be loaded and fired in 20 seconds!! This was a 50 cal. Lead bullet, with a bayonet. They carried a knapsack with a ditty bag, tin plate, and mug/bucket. There were many women that served, between 500-1500!!! David spoke like he was actually there and participated in the war. He was so entertaining and informative!! Some of the information was a surprise to all there, like the fact that baseball was invented in northern prisoner of war camps!!! 700,000 men and women lost their lives in the "Civil War", more than any other war!! He mentioned a great vacation stop at the Ohio Civil War Museum in Tiffin Ohio!!! Thank you, David, for bringing the "Civil War" to life for us!!! Please come back sometime!!!
